

SPOTTED DOG STUDIO MEMBERSHIP AGREEMENT

The Spotted Dog Studio is designed for individuals working independently in a variety of printmaking techniques. No ongoing instruction is given. Members are expected to be able to function independently in regard to their own work. All members are expected to perform the technical tasks necessary to the operation of the studio as a whole. Studio hours are generally 9 am to 5 pm each day, with extended hours available by request.

Full membership to Spotted Dog Studio is $45/month, payable on the first of each month. Included in membership is the use of a large work table, access to a press, and all inks and ink supplies. Other equipment, such as paper area, brayers, ink knives, scissors, large rollers, etc., are also included. Members will be guaranteed 2 work days, either back to back or otherwise designated by member, with additional days available at $10/day if space is available.

Members may use the kitchen & bathroom in the main house.

A hard sided portfolio for paper and prints and a small box of supplies may be left at the studio. Members bring their own gloves, paper towels, brushes & apron.

The NUARC exposure unit may be rented for $10/day.

Classes by visiting artists may be offered through the year, but will not be longer than 5 days. Members taking classes from Linda Taylor will receive a 10% discount.

WAIVER CLAUSE:

In consideration of becoming a member of the printmaking studio, I am aware of the inherent risk of my participation at the Spotted Dog Studio. These risks are physical injury associated with working with tools and equipment in the print studio.

I agree to indemnify and hold harmless Linda Taylor, Ray Magee and Spotted Dog Studio from any and all claims, demands, actions and costs which might arise out of my participating and working at Spotted Dog Studio.
